THANK YOU—to everyone who helped to make the 190th Chapel Anniversary plus the 25th Birthday of the Wesley Centre such a huge success. Many visitors were impressed with the worship, the sanctuary and the wide range of activities encompassed by the Centre...and how we are involved with the whole community. The preaching on Sunday was outstanding with Lord Griffiths, you will be pleased to hear, has promised a return visit in the not too distant future. The Church Stewards

During our weekend of celebrations we raised money for the Wesley Centre Future Projects Fund. The sum raised to date, including giftaid rebate is £1319.00. The fund is on-going and donations will always be welcome. A reminder that the LICK project starts on Monday 30th July—a Lunchtime club with a craft and lunch for 5-11 year olds. Another new project will focus on bringing the housebound to the Wesley Centre for a free lunch. Morwenna Williams Treasurer

Dear Camborne Wesley,

Wow! It was a privilege to share in some of the anniversary celebrations and a joy to see the Church and Centre buzzing with conversation and activity.

I'm aware that by the time I turned up to eat the cakes and enjoy the party, much hard work had already been done upfront and behind the scenes, so ... a most sincere thank you for the offerings of prayer and prep, frustrations and aspirations, tears and laughter, time and effort that enabled the weekend to be as it was. Deo Gratias!
